INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Robert J. Krawitz
(1942-2002)
Richard A. Sandlow
(1929-2000)

To the Board of Directors and Members
Northwinds Advisors LLC

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Northwinds Advisors LLC, formerly known as The Gemini Securities Group LLC, as of December 31, 2007 and 2006, and the related statements of income (loss), changes in members' capital and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The Company maintains its operations in accordance with subparagraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and as a result is not subject to other provisions of that rule. Accordingly, the Company did not safekeep nor handle securities and, therefore, did not have procedures established for such.

A reconciliation of the computation of net capital with the Company's corresponding most recent unaudited FOCUS report, Part II-A of the Financial and Operational Combined Uniform Single Report, did not disclose any material differences, only minor discrepancies, as described in the attached supplementary schedule.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Northwinds Advisors LLC as of December 31, 2007 and 2006 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The computation of net capital under Rule 15c3-1 and computation for determination of reserve requirements under Exhibit A of Rule 15c3-3 on pages 11 and 12 is presented for supplementary purposes and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the New York State Exchange and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purpose.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2007 AND 2006

NOTE A – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Northwinds Advisors LLC (the Company) was organized on July 18, 2003 as a limited liability company. In 2007, the Company amended its operating agreement and changed its name from The Gemini Securities Group LLC to Northwinds Advisors LLC. The Company is a registered securities dealer, per authority of the NASD (National Association of Security Dealers), which maintains an office in Chicago, Illinois. The Company was granted membership in the NASD on January 5, 2005. The Company engages in the distribution of private offerings of limited partnerships, primarily real estate investments and other similarly structured instruments.

Prior to 2007, the Company was a development stage company. The Company is no longer a development stage company as of January 1, 2007. The Company is owned by two single member LLC's, Helios Group LLC and Macatawa Group LLC. The operating agreement provides for net income and losses, tax credits and tax preference items to be allocated 50% to each member.

Basis of Accounting

The Company's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting.

Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Amortization of Organization Costs

Certain costs related to the organization of the Company have been capitalized and are being amortized using the straight-line method over 5 years.

Income Taxes

The Company is a Limited Liability Company for income tax purposes and the members are taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Accordingly, no provision or liability for federal income taxes is presented in the Company's financial statements. The Company is subject to state income taxes.

Statement of Cash Flows

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Independent Auditors' Report of Internal Control
Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

We have audited the financial statements of Northwinds Advisors LLC, formerly known as The Gemini Securities Group LLC, as of December 31, 2007 and 2006, and have issued our report thereon dated February 26, 2008. As part of our audit we considered the Company's internal control structure to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by generally accepted auditing standards. The purpose of our study and evaluation, which included obtaining an understanding of the accounting system, was to determine the nature, timing and extent of the auditing procedures necessary for expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, ("the Commission"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by Northwinds Advisors LLC that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g)(1), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11).

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related cost of control procedures and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2007, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the New York Stock Exchange and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purpose.
